

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my sincere appreciation and gratitude goes to the following who has continued to assist me in completing this capstone consultancy project.

Dr Nasir Bin Hj Darman, Head of Technology, PCSB who has given me the opportunity and guidance as my industrial advisor to develop the solution for his business and organizational requirements as my project objective.

AP Dr Azrai Bin Abdullah, who has taken up the role as my student advisor and with patients guided me throughout this project.

Lecturers from the Department of Management and Humanities who has also guided and given me constructive comments to ensure the success and quality of this project.

My MBA friends and colleagues for cheering and continuously giving me the spirit to complete this project.

Last but not least, my lovely wife and children who without their understanding and support I would have never been able to complete my MBA program and this project successfully.
